Stevie Hawkins : : "I Know You Know"

Stevie Hawkins is a multiple award-winning artist who has ascended through the ranks as an adept vocalist, drummer, entertainer, songwriter, film composer, engineer, and producer. His ever-present influence inspires musicians and cult fans globally. As a live performer, he electrifies his audience and immediately establishes a relationship with them during his shows.

Over the years, Stevie has recorded and toured with major recording artists, Chuck Berry, Percy Sledge, Albert King, John Lee Hooker, Rufus Thomas, Leon Russell, Glen Campbell, Bertie Higgins, Johnny Rodriguez, Doug Stone, among others.

Stevie has performed countless shows at many historic venues including the Whisky A Go-Go, Avalon Theater Hollywood, Orpheum Theater, Capitol Theater, and Strand Theater,. Stevie continues his life-long pursuit of musical and artistic excellence, demonstrating a tireless commitment to his craft.

"I Know You Know" is a catchy pop song with an addictive mid-tempo groove, lyrically conveying the oneness shared by two people who love with a passion. Fully recorded analog, with hints of 80s and 90s artists Hall & Oates and Bobby Brown, the song bears a unique retro vibe, yet maintains a fresh modern sound, making this track appealing to both youth and adult radio audiences.

After decades of cranking out memorable songs, Hawkins continues to be a modern-day pioneer, remaining true to himself with every piece of music he records.
